

CHARLES STREET OB~GYN

Prenatal Testing Schedule

First Prenatal Visit (8-10 weeks)

History & Physical
PAP & Gonorrhea/Chlamydia Cultures
Review of pregnancy modifications, diet & exercise
Sign consent forms
Prenatal blood work (includes blood type, antibody screen, hematocrit, Syphilis, Hepatitis B, HIV, Rubella, Thyroid, urinalysis)
First Trimester Sonogram (10 weeks) for dating
Cystic Fibrosis Screening
Review Genetic Testing Options (see chart on reverse side)

Prenatal Visit (16-20 weeks)

Quad screen or MSAFP
Sonogram for fetal anomalies (18-20 weeks) – gender can be revealed if desired.

Prenatal Visit (28 weeks)

1 hour Glucose Tolerance Test (screens for Gestational Diabetes)
3 hour Glucose Tolerance Test (only performed if 1 hour GTT is elevated)
Blood work (includes hematocrit and Syphilis)
Rh negative patients need to get indirect coombs and Rhogam injection

Prenatal Visit (36 weeks)

Group Beta Strep (GBS) culture obtained
(if test is positive antibiotics are required during labor)
Weekly pelvic exams begin (to determine cervical dilatation and effacement)

All Prenatal Visits, including those not listed above, will consist of:

Weight
Blood Pressure
Urine Specimen (checks for protein and glucose)
Fetal Heart Rate
Fundal Height Measurement

 We will inform you as soon as possible of any abnormal test results, or those requiring repeat testing or an explanation. If you would like to know the results of any other tests, you may call us 2 weeks after a test was done to obtain the result by telephone.